"Wanted: Antitrust Criminals" Criminalisation of Competition Law

Lunchtime lectures at the Competition Law Research Centre

23 March 2011, 12:00, PPKE-JÁK, II. János Pál Hall

Speakers:

Scott Crosby

and

Péter Mezei

Scott Crosby studied at the University of St Andrews where he obtained an M.A. in modern languages and at the University of Edinburgh where he obtained an LL.B. He specialised in European Law at the College of Europe in Bruges where he obtained the CAES (LL.M). His association with Kemmler Rapp Böhlke (& Crosby) began in 1981. His practice includes the main areas of European law, such as free movement and competition law and the criminal aspects of EU law and European trade mark law.

Péter Mezei graduated from Pázmány Péter Catholic University Faculty of Law in 2007. Since then, he has worked as an associate at Réti, Antall and Madl LANDWELL Law Firm (PwC Hungary's correspondent law firm). His practice mostly involves competition and commercial cases (including various related fields of law such as consumer and data protection, pharmaceutical law, EU law, etc.) and he also advises on criminal cases. In 2009, he wrote his dissertation on the criminal aspects of cartel law and obtained a higher degree in competition law at Pázmány University.
